

Emilie Delanois Associate

edelanois@budownoble.com

301-654-0896

Emilie Delanois maintains a civil practice, focusing on insurance defense. She represents clients at all stages of litigation, from discovery through trial. Her cases involve complex issues arising from property, motor vehicle, and commercial disputes, and require creative strategy for effective resolution. Prior to joining Budow and Noble, Emilie worked for the District of Columbia government where she honed her research abilities and developed a strong foundation in advocacy. She applies these skills to help her clients achieve their goals.

Education

The George Washington University Law School, Juris Doctor, 2023

University of St Andrews, MA in History and International Relations, magna cum laude, 2020

Bar Admissions

District of Columbia