

Tawfik Abedali Associate tabedali@budownoble.com

301-654-0896

Tawfik Abedali maintains a general civil litigation practice, with a focus on insurance defense. From discovery to trial, he represents clients at all stages of litigation. His cases involve liability analysis and damages evaluations in both property and motor vehicle disputes. Prior to joining Budow and Noble, Tawfik worked for Progressive Insurance, where he specialized in coverage analysis and liability determinations. He applies this experience and creates litigation strategies to help clients achieve their goals.

Education:

The University of Cincinnati College of Law, Juris Doctor, 2025

Butler University, B.S. in International Business, 2022

Bar Admissions:

State of Maryland

Admitted to Practice:

Maryland